

Contract Psychologist

- 12-month contract
- 1-2 days per week
- Work with a leader in eating disorder services

About the role:

Eating Disorders Victoria (EDV) is seeking contract psychologists to provide high quality psychological services for people with eating disorders and those who support them.

EDV is looking to grow the psychology service to offer appointments to the public across weekdays, between the hours of 9am and 6pm.

The successful applicant will be provided with ongoing referrals, administrative support and be co-located with other professionals in an inner urban community hub.

About you:

Interested applicants should be committed to delivering psychological services as part of a multidisciplinary team supporting those impacted by eating disorders. You will be able to work independently with strong organisation and time management skills, and have a commitment to ongoing professional development.

All Contract Psychologists must have:

- Approved Tertiary qualifications and hold professional registration.
- Eligibility to provide services under the Medicare Benefits Schedule and be registered with a Medicare provider number.
- Professional indemnity insurance.
- A current Working with Children Check.
- An ABN.

Benefits:

- Work within a leader in the eating disorder community.
- Reception support . including appointment management and accounting.
- Flexibility with working hours, minimum of one-day commitment.
- Be a part of a community hub in an inner metropolitan location.
- Receive ongoing referrals.

About Eating Disorders Victoria:

EDV provides a comprehensive support and information service on all aspects of eating disorders. EDV incorporates a unique approach through a blend of qualified professionals and lived experience of employees and volunteers with a mission to reduce the duration and severity of eating disorders.

How to apply:

Send a brief cover letter and CV (including two referees), outlining your experience working with eating disorders, and your eligibility to kelly.edwards@eatingdisorders.org.au

Applications close Monday 11 September at 5pm.
