

Free wound care update and falls prevention

Expressions of Interest sought from Residential Aged Care Facilities (RACFs) in the North Western Melbourne region

Would you like to be a leader in improving care for the elderly in your community?

Background

North Western Melbourne PHN (NWMPHN) is seeking interest from RACFs to host a combined wound care update and falls prevention Education session in their facility.

If you have the capacity to seat up to 30 participants in a learning environment NWMPHN will coordinate with you, and provide the educators and catering. This is a great opportunity for organisations interesting in networking and leadership. NWMPHN will extend the invitation to your staff, General Practitioners, Practice Nurses and Nurses working in both community settings and neighbouring RACFs.

What is involved?

- NWMPHN will coordinate with you and the wound care and falls prevention educators to conduct a one full day training sessions in your facility.
- The training will be open to your staff as well as GPs and Nurses working in both general practice and other community settings.
- Course materials and catering will be provided.

How to apply

Send your EOI application to marie.hunt@nwmpnh.com.au by COB 7 November 2017.

To register your interest in hosting this education event, or for any other queries, please contact Marie Hunt, Program Officer Older Adults by calling (03) 9347 1188 or email: marie.hunt@nwmpnh.com.au
