

He may be the apple of your eye,
but he's not immune.

It's time to immunise
Melbourne.

If your child is between 12 to 18 months and hasn't had their shots on time, they're not immune and they're at risk from a range of life threatening and disabling diseases. Talk to your GP or child health nurse to vaccinate on time and protect your little angel.

For more information visit immunisemelbourne.org.au

phn
NORTH WESTERN MELBOURNE

An Australian Government Initiative