

medicare

Mental Health

We're here for you.

Services are safe and everyone is welcome

When you call, you'll speak with trained mental health staff and peer support workers who will take the time to listen and connect you with the support that suits your needs and goals.

Please call us on 1800 595 212.

